A Selection of 80 Inexpensive and Good Parisian Restaurants

∞ French Cuisine Only ∞

Dear Member,

This short electronic guide was prepared for you by the editors of www.paris-eiffel-tower-news.com.

There are so many restaurants in Paris, it would be impossible to eat twice at the same place in 10 years if you were to pick one new restaurant a day.

Yet, not all restaurants were created equal. Amongst the many, some are great finds which you will recommend to your friends. This electronic guide lists 80 of these.

The average price range is €11-15 at lunch time, and the selected restaurants prepare French cuisine only. The selection covers every one of the 20 Parisian districts.

A word of caution from the editors: lunch specials are always less expensive than the dinner menu. Wines are charged on top of any specials. Note that the prices indicated in this guide may have changed since they were observed. We advise you to call in advance to make sure the restaurant is open.

We hope that you enjoy French cuisine as prepared by this selection of restaurants. Please let us know how well they did and what were your favorites by writing back to:
